Christmas is only around the corner

Do you have presents under your Christmas tree? Can they be seen from a window?

Don't give thieves an easy target.

Keep windows and doors secure at all times

Keep presents and valuables out of sight

Dispose of all boxes and packaging carefully, particularly from expensive presents, and do not leave it on show outside the house.

Security mark gifts and valuables with your postcode and house number.

Register items using the free service: immobilise.com which enables police to identify the owner of valuables if they are stolen.

Out shopping?

If you are visiting the shops this Christmas, be careful how you leave your car.

Do not leave valuables or shopping on display in your car

Close windows, sunroof, lock doors & activate security alarms when leaving your car

Park in a busy, well-lit area or secure car park if possible - Visit <http://www.parkmark.co.uk/> for details of approved local car parks

Take valuables with you when you leave your car, eg: cash, credit cards, mobile phones, sat nav systems etc.

Avoid going back to your car to leave your shopping part-way through your trip
